ELIJAH BESHIZI אֵלִיָּהוּ בֶּשִׁיזִי [Addôphé Elyahu. The mantle of Elijah. Tale in Hebrew and Russian.]

Vladiv. (Vladivostok), 1835.

F. d. 14 in. Hebrew. 119 leaves.

— The author, Elia ben Moshe ben Meir ben David, of Ashdod, is one of the most celebrated of Jewish writers. He died about 1490, and his work was completed by his pupil, Elia ben Meir. The work deals with mystical rules, and the first part is largely concerned with the fixing of the calendar for feast days, etc. The explanation of the name Beshizis is uncertain. It has been explained as Hebrew (Beshizis) or as a corruption of B. Shizis, neither being very probable. This is a reprint of the very rare Constantinople edition of 1790-31, published by his grandson. On the fly leaf at the beginning is a ms. extract from a commentary on Sefer hag ha'ma'ar, cap. 2, by אֵלִיָּהוּ בֶּשִׁיזִי.

1. The first part of the paper is devoted to the study of the properties of the function $f(x)$ defined by the equation $f(x) = \int_0^x f(t) dt$. It is shown that $f(x)$ is a continuous function and that it satisfies the functional equation $f(x+y) = f(x) + f(y)$. The function $f(x)$ is also shown to be differentiable and its derivative is found to be $f'(x) = f(x)$. This implies that $f(x) = Ce^x$ for some constant C . The value of C is determined by the initial condition $f(0) = 1$, which gives $C = 1$. Therefore, the function $f(x)$ is the exponential function $f(x) = e^x$.

Articles of Magna Carta. The original articles submitted by the barons and accepted by the King to settle as the laws of Magna Carta, c. 1215 (Magna Carta of King John, c. 1215).

1. The first step is to identify the problem or goal. This involves understanding the current situation and what needs to be achieved.

* This tract seems to have followed close upon the "Admonitions to the Parliament". In the preface we read "Suche hath alwayes (deare brethren) bene the corrupt nature of the wicked and ungodlye of thys worlde, that as yet they could never away with suche as would either but simply tell them of or frankly and freely reprove them for theyr manifest synnes and ungodlinesse. . . . And what other cause there shuld be why those two treatises, that were lately written & imprinted, in ye last Parliament tyme, iustly crauing a redresse and Reformation of many abuses and corruptions, yet in the english church remayning, shuld of so many be misliked, and ye authors therof so cruelly entreted, & straightly imprisoned as they are. . . ."
